PRESIDENT MCGINLEY PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MCGINLEY: Senator Johnson would come up, I'll ordain him to say the prayer for the day. Introduce Senator Lowell Johnson.

SENATOR LOWELL JOHNSON: May we bow our heads in prayer, please. Oh God, we are grateful that you have brought us to the beginning of this 86th day of service in the Nebraska Legislature. As we work on the final business of this session, grant that this body may act with a sense of justice and truth, with reverence and a degree of selflessness. We would ask you not to deliver us from the burdens and the stresses of the day but to give us grace and wisdom to carry them. Deliver us from hypocrisy and thought and action. Save us from discord and alienation and bond us together in the degree of understanding. Keep us from wasting time or delaying actions for which our people of Nebraska long and for which we are responsible. Grant us, oh Lord, the courage to do well those tasks entrusted to us. We pray in the name of Him, who was servant of all. Amen.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator. Members, please record your presence. Roll call. Members, please record your presence for the beginning of today's session. Members, please record your presence so that we can begin session. Clerk will record those present.
